La Porte May 8/83

Dear Sir

The continued severe illness of my wife renders it impossible for me to leave her and to resume my duty as Watchman and I shall therefore tender to you my Resignation to take Effect on Receipt of this in leaving the Mint with which I have been connected since July 1880.

I wish to assure you of my warm gratitude not only for my appointment but for the kind treatment which I have always received as Employé under your administration as this Official Chief of the department

Very Respectfully your

Isaac S Mowry

[Abstract:] Resignation.

La Porte, Ind.
May 8, 1883

Dear Sir

The continued severe illness of my wife renders it impossible for me to leave her or to resume my duty as Watchman in U.S. Mint. I therefore tender to give my Resignation to take effect on Receipt of this. In leaving the Mint with which I have been connected since July 1880. I wish to assure you of my warm gratitude not only for my appointment but for the kind treatment which I have always received as employed under your administration as the Official Chief of the department.

Very Respectfully yours
Jno. S. Morey
